DAY 1: PREPARING

Session 1: Define yourself

In this session, you will learn: What are the different categories of expats are, and discover your fit. This will help you not only learn more about yourself as a returning Aussie, but it will help guide you throughout the duration of the program.

Speaker: Johanna Pitman, CEO at Advance

Session 2: Promote yourself (LinkedIn coaching)

In this session, you will learn: How to reinvent yourself on LinkedIn and how to attract the opportunities that you want. Looking at LinkedIn in a new light to help reposition yourself, reinvigorate your network to support a smooth transition home and how to use LinkedIn to generate the right new opportunities with ease for yourself or your business.

Speaker: Megan Tait, Brand Strategy, Executive Coach, Career Strategy and Digital Strategy

DAY 2: ADJUSTING

Session 3: Adapt to significant change for success (mindset coaching)

In this session, you will learn: Above and below-the-line thinking (understanding unhelpful thinking). Reframing thinking focused on what can be controlled, juggling expectations and reality.

Speaker: Lisa Donohue, Mindset & Accountability Coach

Session 4: Hear from others ("repat" panel)

In this session, you will hear: a panel of returned Australians share tips (and mistakes!) on finding your tribe, connecting with other repatriates, ways to pivot and adapt and what helped to make a soft landing

Host: Josh Pugh (America Josh)

A business founding, digital marketing focused, charity driving, community builder from South Australia, living in New York City.

Speakers: Jhoshan Jothilingam, International Business.

Kate Glazebrook, Head of Impact and Operating Principal at Blackbird

Mandy Drury, CNBC Anchor and Global Conference Moderator

DAY 3: SETTLING

Session 5: Navigate the move (expert Q&A) hosted by LJ Ferrara, Aussie Expats Coming Home

In this session, you will learn: Choose topics of interest for a quick Q&A with an expert.

- Financial planning
- Taxes
- Property
- Mortgages
- Overseas assets
- Schools
- Freight
- Visas / Immigration
- Health services
- Counselling / Therapy

Session 6: Land the right role (hiring panel)

In this session, you will have a Panel: Identifying what skills Australia needs and how to approach using your time overseas as a positive to fit the home market. Navigating recruitment - 'drivers' of the home market, identifying what skills Australia needs, big or small career pivots, alternatives to full-time roles. Changing your approach during the recruitment process, what problems can you solve rather than talking too much about your time overseas.

Speakers:

Katherine Henry - Executive Director at Russel Reynolds

Alex Brown - Associate Partner and Interim Executive at Watermark

Margot Andersen - Founder & CEO at Insync Network Group
